
John Andrews Iridology

A snippet of Seminar, Lecture, Training & Publication Feedback from Across the Globe

"I've had three more referrals since I last spoke to you all from word of mouth!...I'm lost for words, so I have to say that if I hadn't come on your great course and been using your iridology books I would not have been able to have such recommendations! I have studied iridology through several different courses, but nothing has given me the confidence and depth of knowledge that your course has"

"I wanted to start by saying how so incredible it was to be in your presence and learn from you. The way you present your research, knowledge and information is spellbinding... and so appreciated... wow, what a privilege, I enjoyed your class immensely. Thank you so, so much."

"I want to thank you for a wonderful class - as always! I truly appreciate all the work that you are doing."

"I have been meaning to email you to let you know how much I enjoyed your seminar. I must admit I learned more about iridology from you than any other instructor I have had. I bought all your books that were available...I loaned them out and find I miss them!"

"May I comment on your warm personality and approach as an instructor. You teach from the heart and with compassion which is a gift not too many have. Your clients are truly blessed to have your guidance & expertise."

"Thanks for a wonderful presentation & enlightenment into a whole new field. You are an excellent speaker and have a wonderful sense of humor."

"Your seminar was excellent, a lot of information, it created more in-depth knowledge and it was good to see how you use all the levels of iridology together."

"Upon arriving back home I wish to thank you for a wonderful workshop. I wish you to know that I appreciate very much your knowledge and your willingness to share it with your students. I feel that I have been enriched..."

"Thank you for all your presentations at the symposium. They were enlightening. I want to thank you for your willingness to share your findings and also your discipline in following up the information for the people that requested the notes."

"John, it was a great seminar - one of the best!"

"It was an honor to meet you! I truly enjoyed your presentation. It was very informative, as well as extremely motivating for me."

"Thank you so much for your diligent work & research. We in the field are very grateful for your input, and for your open hands and arms. I enjoyed your presentation at the conference immensely."

"The seminar presentations were extremely professional, groundbreaking yet humble, the images were luscious and the explanations clear & concise we were more than fortunate to be there and learn from you - I am truly sure that your patients realize how lucky they are to have you as their physician."

"Just a note to congratulate you on your latest book: Endocrinology & Iridology. I have found it easy to read, and I can honestly admit that I am starting to understand the endocrine system a lot better for the first time. You have succeeded in making a very complex subject much easier to understand. Keep up the good work. I know it's hard, but we look forward to more new book"

"A great course, great not to have to go to England for it!...this has been the best yet, delighted the practical aspects in treatments have been included."

"Best course & presentations yet, much knowledge with very practical/simple technique..thanks John I look forward to applying the further knowledge."

"Enjoyed the whole experience, was fantastic, wonderful lecturer...I will highly recommend the course."

"I thought I knew a lot about Iridology before this seminar...it has been a revelation for me, than you so much."

"Just a line to say how much I value your books and CD-ROMs - they have transformed how I use iridology and allow me to be more effective & dynamic for my client-group. They are the benchmark by which all other iridology books are now set and provide us with scientific validity, so we can be proud to be iridologists in the 21st century."
